INSPECTING CHRISTMAS BAZAAR ARTICLES.

Mrs. W. H. Middleswart, wife of Maj. Gen. Middleswart, is pictured with a few of the hundreds of items that will be on sale at the Christmas Bazaar of the Quartermaster Officers' Wives' Club, to be held December 7 and 8 from 11 to 6 o'clock at Gregory Hall, Second and T streets S.W. Shown with her are 4-year-old Marjorie Wagner, daughter of Col. and Mrs. C. C. Wagner, and a young miss very interested in the photographer's work, Mary Anne Ritchings, daughter of Maj. and Mrs. A. W. Ritchings. Entire proceeds of the bazaar will go to the Soldiers, Sailors, Marines and Airmen's Club for furnishings for the servicemen's recreation room, which the quartermasters' wives established there last year. Among the things on sale will be handmade toys, dressed dolls, imported gift items and other handmade articles.

Mrs. Feldman Tireless Worker for Benefit

Mrs. Herman Feldman, wife of the Quartermaster General, has been one of the tireless workers for the past few months at the regular Thursday morning get-togethers of the Quartermaster Officers' Wives' Club, at Gregory Hall, Second and T streets S.W. Here, the ladies have been busy making hundreds of handmade articles for the bazaar which will be held under their sponsorship, December 7 and 8 at Gregory Hall. The entire proceeds will go for furnishings of the recreation room at the Soldiers, Sailors, Marines and Airmen's Club, 1015 L street N.W. For the small fry there will be an assortment of apparel and toys; "mother and daughter" apron sets, which are so much in demand, will be for sale in great variety. Other articles will include decorated glassware, leathercraft, handmade jewelry and linens. Among the many who have been working with Mrs. Feldman to make this bazaar a success are Mrs. W. H. Middleswart, Mrs. K. L. Walitschek, Mrs. L. L. Skinner, Mrs. Charles Crosby, Mrs. Thomas D. Whatley, Mrs. A. R. Glafka, Mrs. R. E. Bryant and Mrs. R. T. Wargacki.

Brigade Cotillion Planned Saturday

From 400 to 500 girls from Washington, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Wilmington and New York will be hostesses at the Brigade Cotillion to be held Saturday at the Broadway Hotel in Philadelphia following the Army-Navy football game.

The evening of dancing will start at 6 o'clock and last until 12. The hostesses will wear blue and gold bandings over their white dresses and blue and yellow wrist corsages. A queen of the cotillion will be chosen from among the hostesses by members of the Midshipmen's Hop Committee. She will be crowned by George F. Yoran, Jr., chairman of the committee. After the crowning the queen will lead the grand march, climaxed by a cotillion figure.

Mrs. Harry W. Hill, wife of the superintendent of the Naval Academy, and Mrs. Roscoe E. Schuirman, wife of the commandant of the 4th Naval District, are honorary chairmen of the Committee for the Cotillion.
